Another Baptism

Unfortunately, our baptistry is not yet finished so we had to go to the nearby River Nyamwamba to have another baptism service. We had five that were baptized this time - Harriet, Nouvelle, Cossy, Scovia, and Paul - which was a big blessing.

Another Graduation

We were blessed to have another six men graduate from the Bible institute in Mbarara. Even though we are in Kasese now, I had the privilege to teach many of these graduates in the Bible institute before we left.

I started teaching Pastor Vincent (2nd from left) in the mobile institute, and then after we left he continued his education by traveling to Mbarara every week. It was a blessing to see his dedication.

Another TBI

God has opened the door to start a TBI (Tri-annual Bible Institute) in Rwanda. With the help of another missionary and a national pastor, we were able to have our first week-long institute there in the capital of Kigali. We started with sixteen but some left due to some doctrinal issues. We finished the week with over ten men who decided they wanted to be taught the truth from the Word of God.

Another Step to Completion

We continue slowly by slowly to get the church building construction finished. The floor has seen some significant progress as we were able to get it ground. Now, we can actually see the terrazzo beneath it.

Please continue to pray as we are nearing the painting phase. I am so excited about getting this project finished!

Another Discippler

One of our goals is to train men to reach others and those trained to train others (2Timothy 2:2). It is such a blessing to see that in action, especially when it reaches the third generation. I had the opportunity to lead Brian to the Lord and disciple him. Later, Brian led Robert to the Lord and disciplined him. Now, Robert is discipling another man, Obed.

Uganda's Uniqueness

We once witnessed the baptism service of another religion. Before they began the baptism, they waved the Bible over the water, supposedly casting out the demons in the water.

Prayer Requests
