Furlough

God has continued to bless as we have put many miles on our vehicle. The past few months have taken us through Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Vermont, Rhode Island, New York and even into Canada. We are thankful for God's protection in this time.

We praise the Lord for the generosity of many individuals and churches who have given to meet the needs of our projects. We have received about 78% of what we need. If you are interested in helping with these needs, please contact us via email or text. Please pray that God will provide the full amount for these projects while we are on furlough.

We are glad that we are coming nearer to the end of our furlough time. It has been a blessing being with the many supporting and new churches and many friends as well, but we are ready to get back home to the place where God has called us. Our tickets are set for September 17 to return to Uganda.

Back Home in Uganda

We are thankful that the work in Uganda is continuing on, although the devil continues to try and stop what the Lord is doing. The men and women have really been faithful in all the ministries there.

Both of the two newest churches in Kyinyayobyo and Ribweryakyona have begun making bricks for their permanent structures. I am amazed at the willingness of these people to work and sacrifice their time to help in the work.

The different leaders in the churches continue to hold various conferences (family, parents, singles) to encourage the people. I am also very grateful to the men who are teaching in the Bible college during my absence. I truly appreciate their dedication.

Family Update

Marcus was able to attend a ministry retreat for children of missionaries, pastors, and evangelists who are leaving the home. They addressed struggles faced and encouraged the young people. It was a help to Marcus. Praise the Lord for those who minister to children in the ministry! Our time is soon approaching to go home in Uganda. We could use extra prayer as our departure will be bittersweet leaving kids behind.
